

q con-
prised
re.
ple
s ter-
awa
t Iraq
cause
vari-
ee on
sues
e the y also
that
to
ow-
ences
agree
al
two ce and
d a
n Italy
for
arian
vited
d the
ian
into
ue
ions.”
al
ation-
from
enda-
sys-
rious
nd
ees
ng an
to
ism.
er
t
o-
the
govern-
dus-
week by
ences
in es
ribut-
in
s to es.
ing
ern-
ring
nt
ress
ve
bio-
mpor-
ent
ding
r-
ives
ould
ms to
the
ederal
e this
of our

Photographs by Jake Wright, The Hill Times

We're a water nation, nation: 1. Liberal Leader Stéphane Dion was in Ottawa last Tuesday night for a 'community conversation' on water held at the Church of Ascension on Echo Drive and organized by Liberal Ottawa Centre candidate Penny Collenette. Ms. Collenette is trying to draw attention to the lack of clear political leadership over Ottawa's water and pollution in the Ottawa River. 2. The Hill Times paparazzi was there to snap Mr. Dion's arrival. 3. Mr. Dion said 'giddy' to a few folks. 4. Mr. Dion spruces up for his entrance. 5. Liberal Party worker Kyle Harrietha, who is working on Ms. Collenette's election campaign had a smoke before the show. 6. Liberal MP John Godfrey was there. 7. Mr. Dion delivered a speech 8. Ottawa Riverkeeper executive director Meredith Brown, who published a report on the Ottawa River which looked at toxins, discharge from Chalk River nuclear site, and the effects of the pulp and paper industry on the river. 9. Rick Findlay from Pollution Probe. 10. Ms. Collenette. 11. Jean-François Deltorchio, press secretary to Mr. Dion, and Mr. Godfrey shoot the breeze. 12. Grit MPs Francis Scarpaleggia, Mr. Godfrey, Pontiac Liberal candidate Cindy Duncan-McMillan, Mr. Dion and his wife Janine Kriber. 13. Sierra Legal Defence Fund's Will Amos.